Celebrations:

- World Heritage Day Celebration - In order to promote an aesthetic sense for the world heritage sites and to sensitize the students about the cultural relevance of the historical buildings, the school celebrated World Heritage Day on 18th April 2017 in a special morning assembly. Students of class X through various activities such as speeches, role play and slogan parade emphasised the importance to protect the historical legacies passed on to us by our ancestors. The celebration was also marked as an International activity under BCISA project.
- World Earth Day Celebration - To promote eco-friendly practices and spread awareness about the environment protection, school celebrated World Earth Day on 22nd April 2017 in a special morning assembly. The celebration was marked by the assorted presentations of the students from class IX-X. Afterwards a tree plantation drive was initiated by the students of class VI-VIII in the school premises.
- The Investiture Ceremony of Birla Shishu Vihar for the academic session 2017-18 was held on 22nd April 2017 in the school premises. The newly elected student prefectorial body took an oath in front of the whole school to be true to their posts and duties assigned to them. On the same day, Gandhi House In-charge Mr. Satish Shukla was awarded with the house trophy for the excellent performance of Gandhi house in all house activities during the session 2016-17.
